A Ford car belonging to Thomas Stacy of Barre Town was resting against the bank in front of James Harvey's house on Merchant street extension this morning, with three wheels broken and the front end damaged as the result of running into the bank last night. The car which was driven by Henry Stacy, brother of the owner, was returning from Barre last night about 6 o'clock when the steering gear suddenly snapped and the car started to leave the road. The driver managed to turn the wheel back but he did it so quickly that the car jumped to the other side of the road and crashed against the bank. Stacy, who was the only occupant of the car, was uninjured but he decided that he would walk the rest of the way home.

A special meeting of Women of Mooseheart Legion will be held in the K. of P. hall to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Important business.

EAST BARRE

East Barre Team Won from Northfield Legion Saturday, 9 to 0.

The East Barre team went to Northfield Saturday and beat the Legion team of the latter place by a score of 9 to 0. The features of the game were the heavy hitting of the East Barre team by getting two three-baggers and three two-baggers and seven singles, and they gave Beaton most of the credit by striking out 22 men. It must be remembered that the Northfield team beat the Legion team of Barre by a score of 10 to 5 and the National Life of Montpelier 11 to 5, so the East Barre team still feels that it is in the limelight.

Barre Golf Club Won.

EAST CALAIS WON.

Defeated Northfield Falls By Score of 9 to 7.

Northfield Falls, July 24.—East Calais defeated Northfield Falls in an interesting game of baseball Saturday afternoon by the score of 9 to 7.

Northfield Falls had the lead until the eighth inning by the score of 6 to 3. W. Provost was spiked in the sixth inning on the leg and hand by one of the East Calais men, who were jumping shoes. Provost showed grit and caught the rest of the game.

The fielding of Brown was clever, he having six putouts to his credit. The fielding of Legier and F. Provost was great. F. Provost made one long run for a fly, which he gathered in. The lineup:

For the Texas Legislature Defeating Newspaperman.

Dallas, Texas, July 24.—Interest in the outcome of the first Democratic primary election, held last Saturday, narrowed down to-day to the question of an opponent for Representative Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene, in the second "run-off" primary August 20.

Blanton, seeking re-election, had a five to three lead and was assured a place on the run-off ticket, but his opponents were grouped closely, with Former Representative Oscar Callaway of Fort Worth holding a slight advantage over W. J. Cunningham of Abilene and J. B. Dibble of Coleman.

Senator Charles A. Culberson still had a chance of retaining his seat, although 3000 behind Earl C. Mayfield in the senatorial race. James E. Ferguson or Culberson will run against Mayfield in the August election. Ferguson had a lead over Culberson to-day of 200 votes.

Governor Pat. M. Neff, with a 32,000 lead, is assured renomination without going into the second primary.

Mrs. Edith Wilkins of Dallas may be the first woman to sit in the Texas legislature. She won the Democratic nomination from John E. Davis, a newspaperman.

Local authorities have been reviewing the statutes to ascertain what town would bear the expense connected with the funeral of Glenn Hayford, who hung himself Saturday night in the county jail, in case that his relatives should not take care of the matter. Mr. Hayford stated to the court that he was without funds to secure an attorney when he appeared in court, therefore, the authorities were interested in who would settle the bills. In case of a commitment to a state institution the town in which the prison is located bears the expense but this instance is a little different for the man was only in the county jail awaiting being taken to Windsor. Some, however, hold that Montpelier would have to bear the expense.

G. L. Field and E. G. Glysson of the state engineer's department left this morning for Sand Bar bridge to begin staking out the highway construction project.
